Anishinabek Family Care

Code of Ethics

1. We shall treat client/family with dignity and shall respect their unique differences in culture, religion, race, and sexual orientation.
2. We shall treat our client holistically, encompassing family, peer group, and community.
3. We shall respect the confidentiality of each client/family.
4. We shall respect, safeguard, and advocate for the rights of each client and/or family.
5. We shall promote our client autonomy and increased self-esteem.
6. We shall cooperate with other professionals which offer service to our clientele.
7. Recognizing that we are a catalyst for change we shall:
 - a) utilize current and knowledgeable methods and techniques in order to provide quality service to our clientele and;
 - b) actively seek out opportunities to learn and develop as well as support growth in our co-workers and other professionals.
8. We shall not use or condone the use of corporal punishment under any circumstances.
9. We shall not become involved in or condone sexual involvement with clients.
10. We shall be knowledgeable about and adhere to all laws.
11. We shall develop, implement, and administer the policies and procedures of Dilico.
12. We shall only enter into contracts that allow us to maintain our professional integrity.
13. We are committed to the ongoing development of our profession through competent training and supervision.
14. We shall conduct ourselves in a professional and ethical manner at all times.

Where a staff member is recognized or regulated by a professional body or school, then their professional Code of Ethics and/or Values shall also apply.

Dilico recognizes the "Ontario Association of Child and Youth Counsellors Code of Ethics – Adopted, March 1985" in the development of this Code of Ethics
