Tammy Porteous & Xavier Thompson
Foster Parents

Many children and youth need loving, supportive foster parents and families to provide a safe place when they can't live at home.

Dilico foster parents come from all ages, backgrounds, and a variety of life stages. They are caring, loving, team-orientated individuals who lead healthy lifestyles and are committed to making a positive difference for a child.

Foster Parents are supported by Dilico from start to finish:

- Learning and educational training
- Cultural education and activities
- Professional support staff assigned to your home
- 24-hour on-call support
- Mutual support and networking opportunities
- Financial support

“ Dilico gave us many resources when it came to fostering. We built a good relationship, and it was really positive. They always have training opportunities available for foster parents. ” journey.

It takes a community to raise a child. Dilico's Foster Care Program is guided by the Mikinaak Service Model that was created by the Elders and Chiefs within the Robinson Superior Treaty Area. It recognizes culture and traditions of all Indigenous nations.

Discover the benefits (and smiles) of being a foster parent. You're helping keep a child safe while supporting a family.

“ I was in foster care since I was about nine years old. Breaking that cycle of disadvantage has been important to me. Luckily, I was placed in a foster home that was really supportive and really loving. My foster parents helped me on my journey and showed me that I could be whoever I wanted to be. ”
